Action Chosen: Use the Fangs for Intel & Locate Kain's True Base

🔥 Kain isn't just another target. He's the endgame.

💀 If you strike blind, you waste your shot. If you hunt him first—you end this war before it truly begins.

You turn to The Alpha.

Joel: "I need more than soldiers. I need information."

The Alpha grins, nodding.

The Alpha: "Smart. Kain's no fool—he won't be sitting in a Hunter HQ waiting for us."

He snaps his fingers, and a Fang scout steps forward—a wiry, masked Hunter with cybernetic optics.

📌 NAME: GHOST

◆ Iron Fang's best infiltrator.

◆ Specialist in tracking & gathering intel.

◆ Survived inside the Association's ranks for over a year.

🔥 If anyone can find Kain, it's him.

🔑 TRACKING KAIN – CHOOSING YOUR METHOD

Ghost crosses his arms, voice sharp and clipped.

Ghost: "Three ways we can hunt him."

◆ 📡 Infiltrate a Secret Hunter Association Data Hub – A hidden site where they store high-level classified intel.

◆ 💰 Follow the Money – Track Kain's personal financial movements to find his real base.

🔥 One of these paths leads straight to Kain. Which do you choose, Joel?

Action Chosen: Interrogate a High-Ranking Association Officer

🔥 No one hides completely. Someone in the Association knows where Kain is.

💀 And you're going to make them talk.

Joel (to Ghost): "Who's our best target?"

Ghost pulls up a small holo-projector, displaying an image of a sharp-dressed woman with cold eyes.

📌 NAME: Helena Ryker

◆ Hunter Association Regional Director – One of Kain's top lieutenants.

◆ Controls security & logistics for Association black sites.

◆ Last seen in Manhattan, under heavy guard.

🔥 If anyone knows where Kain is hiding, it's her.

Dante: "Heh. Let me guess—we ask nicely?"

The Alpha: "Or we make an example out of her."

💀 Time to decide how you'll take her.

🔑 CHOOSING YOUR INTERROGATION STRATEGY

◆ ☐ Kidnap Her Mid-Transport – Take her while she's being moved between locations.

◆ ☒ Infiltrate Her Private Penthouse & Extract Her Quietly – A stealth operation.

Action Chosen: Infiltrate Her Private Penthouse & Extract Her Quietly

🔥 No messy public shootouts. No unnecessary chaos. Just a clean, precise extraction.

💀 You're taking Helena Ryker from her own home.

---

🔑 TARGET LOCATION: HELENA RYKER'S PENTHOUSE

📍 Manhattan, Upper East Side

📍 Top floor of a private, high-security tower.

📍 Protected by elite Hunter Association guards & surveillance drones.

💀 She thinks she's safe. She's wrong.

Ghost scans the building schematics, voice sharp.

Ghost: "Penthouse level has biometric security. Cameras on all entry points. One way in without a fight—roof access."

Naomi ods, studying the security feeds.

Naomi: "Ryker travels light. No full strike team—just a few personal bodyguards. But they're good."

Dante grins, already checking his blades.

Dante: "Then we make it quick."

🔥 You have your entry point. Now you decide how to play it.

---

🔑 CHOOSING YOUR INFILTRATION METHOD

◆ 🚪 Parachute in From a Nearby Skyscraper – Silent, high risk, but bypasses all main security.

◆ 📦 Pose as a Delivery Crew & Get Inside First – Less risk upfront, but requires deception.

◆ ⚡ Take Out Power to the Building & Enter in the Confusion – Full blackout gives you cover, but also puts guards on alert.

🔑 NIGHT OF THE INFILTRATION – MANHATTAN ROOFTOPS

🗼 Midnight. Cold wind howls between the skyscrapers. Below, the city moves as if nothing's wrong.

🔑 Your team is positioned on the rooftop of a neighboring high-rise—one of the few tall enough to make the jump.

Naomi double-checks her calculations.

Naomi (tense): "You miss the penthouse balcony, you're splattering on the sidewalk."

Dante grins, adjusting his harness.

Dante: "No pressure, rookie."

🔥 No second chances. You hit the mark—or you die.

Ghost hands you a sleek, lightweight chute.

Ghost: "Wind speed is stable. Jump on my mark."

Mira adjusts Graves' harness.

Mira: "This is insane."

Joel (smirking): "That's why it's going to work."

💀 Final breath.

🔥 Then—you jump.

🔑 MID-AIR INFILTRATION – APPROACHING THE PENTHOUSE

👉 The wind roars past your ears. The city lights blur below.

📍 Target: Penthouse balcony, 60th floor.

📍 Obstacles: Wind drift, security drones, glass barriers.

🦋 You adjust mid-air, body angling for the drop.

🔥 Then—you see it.

🚁 A Hunter Association security drone hovering near the balcony.

💀 It's armed. If it spots you—it's over.

---

🔑 MID-AIR DECISION – HOW DO YOU HANDLE THE DRONE?

💠 1 Shoot It Mid-Air – Risky, but takes it out before it can react.

💠 2 Adjust Your Angle & Avoid Detection – Requires perfect precision.

💠 3 Deploy an EMP Dart to Disable It Silently – High-tech, but tricky timing.

Action Chosen: Adjust Your Angle & Avoid Detection

🔥 No unnecessary risks. No wasted movement. Just perfect precision.

💀 If the drone doesn't see you, there's no problem.

You tilt your body mid-air, adjusting your chute angle ever so slightly.

👉 The wind shifts. Your trajectory changes.

📍 You slip into the drone's blind spot—just outside its scanning radius.

🚁 It hovers in place, unaware, scanning the air... then turns away.

💀 You pass right by it, untouched.

🔑 LANDING ON THE PENTHOUSE BALCONY

💣 THUD.

🔥 You land soft, rolling into a crouch. Perfect entry.

Dante touches down beside you, grinning.

Dante (whispering): "Damn, rookie. That was clean."

Naomi lands next, breath shaky.

Naomi (muttering): "I hate this plan."

💀 But you're in.

🚒 Security inside the penthouse is still active. Ryker is somewhere beyond those glass doors.

🔥 No time to waste.

🔑 INFILTRATION STRATEGY – HOW DO YOU TAKE RYKER?

◆ 1 Silent Takedown – Move through the penthouse undetected, eliminate guards one by one.

◆ 2 Quick & Brutal – Rush in, overpower the guards before they can react.

◆ 3 Isolate Ryker First – Lock down the security doors so she's trapped alone.
