

❑ Ask Him Directly – Walk up, act casual, and ask where she went.

🔍 Sneak a Look at His Terminal – If he has reports open, you might see something useful.

👂 Blend In & Listen – Hang around, act like you belong, and wait to overhear something.

Action Chosen: Sneak a Look at His Terminal

🔥 Direct questions can raise suspicion.

Instead, you move casually, stepping behind the man's chair like you're just passing through.

Your eyes flick to his terminal.

📄 HUNTER ASSOCIATION INTERNAL REPORT

You only get a few seconds, but you catch key details:

- "Analyst Naomi Hayes – Temporary Suspension."
- "Access to classified data revoked."
- "Pending reassignment."
- "Restricted for internal review – No outside contact allowed."

💀 Your stomach tightens.

She didn't just disappear—she was silenced.

DANGER LEVEL INCREASING

Before you can process further—

👉 The worker shifts in his seat.

You have to move—fast.

How Do You React?

👉 Walk Away Casually – Act normal, no reason for him to suspect anything.

👉 Ask Him About Naomi Anyway – Pretend you're just looking for her, see how he reacts.

👉 Slip Into the Back Offices – If she was suspended, there might be deeper records you can find.

💀 Choose fast, Joel.

Action Chosen: Ask Him About Naomi Anyway

🔥 You have just enough information to push—but not enough to know why she was silenced.

You lean on the desk casually, keeping your voice light, natural.

Joel: "Hey, I was looking for Naomi Hayes. She around?"

The worker blinks, clearly not expecting the question. He shifts slightly in his seat.

🚨 Telltale sign of discomfort.

Worker: "Uh... Naomi? She's—uh—on leave."

🔥 Lie.

You tilt your head.

Joel: "We were supposed to meet. Any idea when she'll be back?"

The worker glances at his terminal—too quick, too nervous.

Worker: "No clue. Management thing. You know how it is."

🔥 He knows something.

But he's scared to say more.

💀 The Hunter Association is covering this up.

What Now?

1 Press Him Harder – Risk pushing, force him to slip up.

2 Back Off & Leave – No need to draw more attention to yourself.

3 Ask Casually About ‘Management’ – If someone higher up gave the order, find out who.

👤 Your call, Joel.

Action Chosen: Ask Casually About ‘Management’

🔥 Pushing too hard could spook him. Instead, you go indirect.

You lean back slightly, keeping your tone curious, not aggressive.

Joel: “Management, huh? Must be serious if they pulled her that fast.”

The worker shifts again, tapping his fingers against the desk.

Worker: “Yeah, well... you know how it is. Someone flags the wrong thing, steps on the wrong toes, and—poof. Internal review.”

👤 He just admitted it.

She stepped on the wrong toes.

🔥 You just need one more push.

Joel: “We talking standard Association oversight? Or... higher up?”

You watch him closely. He hesitates—just for a second—then mutters:

Worker: “Not standard.”

Bingo.

NEW LEAD: Naomi's Suspension Came from Higher Up

You don't know who pulled her, but it wasn't just a routine disciplinary action.

💀 Someone with real power wanted her shut down.

The worker clears his throat, suddenly wary.

Worker: "Look, man, if you're asking these questions, you should probably drop it."

Joel: "Why?"

He doesn't answer. Just shakes his head.

🔥 That's all you need to know.

You push off the desk, nodding.

Joel: "Alright. Thanks anyway."

Then, you walk away.

BACK OUTSIDE – REUNITING WITH DANTE

You slip out of the monitoring station, heart still pounding.

Dante is already leaning against a wall outside, waiting.

The moment he sees you, he raises an eyebrow.

Dante: "Judging by that look on your face, you found something."

🔥 You did. And now? You have a choice.

NEXT MOVE – WHAT DO YOU DO WITH THIS INFORMATION?

❑ Tell Dante Everything – If this is bigger than just one dungeon, he needs to know.

🔲 Keep Some of It to Yourself – Dante is useful, but you still don't fully trust him.

🔲 Suggest Finding Naomi Directly – If she's under "review," she might still be in the city—if you can find her first.

💀 What's your next move, Joel?

Action Chosen: Suggest Finding Naomi Directly

🔥 Talking won't get you more answers. You need to find Naomi—before the Association buries her completely.

You stop in front of Dante, crossing your arms.

Joel: "We need to find Naomi."

Dante studies you for a moment, then exhales through his nose.

Dante: "Figured you'd say that."

He pushes off the wall, glancing around the street before lowering his voice.

Dante: "Alright, rookie. Let's assume the Association locked her down. That means she's either—"

1️⃣ Being Held Inside HQ – Official detainment, kept under watch.

2️⃣ Under House Arrest – Monitored, but still has some freedom.

3️⃣ Already Gone – If someone powerful wanted her silenced, she might've been moved—or worse.

Dante: "We don't have much time. Where do we start?"

💀 What's your call, Joel?

Action Chosen: Check If Naomi Is Under House Arrest

🔥 If the Hunter Association wanted Naomi gone permanently, she'd already be dead.

But she's still alive—which means they need her for something.

That means house arrest is the most likely option.

You turn to Dante.

Joel: "She's not dead yet. If they still need her, she's probably under watch—somewhere familiar, somewhere easy to control."

Dante smirks slightly.

Dante: "Smart. Let's find out."

🔑 TRACKING NAOMI – NEXT STEP

To find Naomi, you need to pick a strategy.

🔍 Search Hunter Association Personnel Records – If she's under house arrest, her registered address might still be in the system.

🕵️ Ask Around the Underground – Certain rogue Hunters and fixers keep tabs on Association movements. They might know if she was moved.

👤 Tail an Association Agent – Find someone assigned to "internal review" and follow them. They might lead you straight to her.

🔥 Time is running out, Joel. What's your move?

Action Chosen: Tail an Association Agent

🔥 If Naomi is under house arrest, someone is watching her.

Find them—and they'll lead you straight to her.

You turn to Dante.

Joel: "We tail an agent. Someone from 'internal review' has to be monitoring her."

Dante's smirk widens slightly.

Dante: "Heh. Now you're thinking like a rogue."

🔑 HUNTER ASSOCIATION HQ – STAKEOUT

You and Dante position yourselves outside the Hunter Association building.

Hours pass.

Hunters come and go. Association officials shuffle in and out.

Then—you spot him.

💀 A middle-aged agent in a black coat. Tall. Serious. Moving with purpose.

A badge flashes briefly as he speaks to the front desk. You barely catch the name:

📄 “Agent Kellan Raines – Internal Review Division”

Then—he walks toward a black car.

Dante nudges you.

Dante: “That’s our guy.”

The engine starts. The car pulls away from the curb.

💀 He’s heading somewhere.

NOW OR NEVER – HOW DO YOU FOLLOW HIM?

🔪 Steal a Vehicle & Trail Him – Keep a safe distance, don’t lose him.

🏠 Use Rooftop Parkour – Move unseen, jumping between buildings to follow from above.

🔧 Hack His Car’s GPS – If you can access Association databases, you might track his destination remotely.
